

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 8 TRYON, N. C., FRIDAY, SEPT. 6, 1935 Est. 1-31-28

Glover Services This Afternoon

Funeral services for Mrs. B. Glover will be held this afternoon at 3:30 at the residence. Rev. O. L. Robinson of Rutherford College, formerly pastor of the Tryon Methodist church, will conduct the services assisted by the Rev. L. J. Keels and the Rev. L. R. Akers, Jr. Members of the Tryon Fire Department of which Mr. Glover is secretary, will serve as pallbearers. Interment in Tryon cemetery.

Melvin Hill Man Fatally Wounded

Chesnee, Sept. 5.—Clyde Henderson, 38, of the Melvin Hill section, died today from the accidental discharge of a .22 calibre rifle in a store near Aberdeen, N. C., it was reported.

The accident, which happened at Olin Wilkins' store, occurred when the rifle accidentally went off in the hands of a man in the store. No inquest will be held, it was announced.

Funeral services will be held Friday at 2 p. m., at the Melvin Hill church, conducted by the Rev. T. Herbert Parris. Interment will follow in the churchyard.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Ollie Henderson; one son, Howard; two daughters, Merl Jean and Bernice; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Henderson, Chesnee, route 1; one brother, P. J. Henderson, Campbello, route 2; two sisters, Mrs. F. C. Westbrook, Chesnee; Mrs. Ed. Lyles, Chesnee, route 1. —Spartanburg Herald.

Resettlemen To Assist Farm Families In State

Farm families in North Carolina who are aided by the Resettlement Administration will be advanced funds for the purchase or lease of land, livestock, equipment and subsistence goods, according to Homer H. B. Mask, of Raleigh, N. C., Director of Rural Resettlement for Region IV, which is made up of Kentucky, North Carolina, Tennessee, Virginia and West Virginia.

"All advances will be properly secured by mortgages on real property, on personal property or on crops, and are repayable within a reasonable period," Mr. Mask said.

"The Resettlement program has to main phases," Mr. Mask added, "rehabilitation, the temporary phase, and resettlement, the permanent phase."

Circus Today At Hendersonville

The Robbins Circus which was scheduled for Tryon on Saturday but cancelled the date, on account of being much larger than last year, is showing today at Hendersonville for afternoon and evening performances.

Gibbons Writes for Polk County News

A new feature for The Polk County News is a series of adventure articles written by Floyd Gibbons, well-known war correspondent. They began in this week's issue.