

Mrs. J. H. Randolph

Spartanburg, Sept. 6.—Funeral services for Mrs. J. H. Randolph, 88, who died at the Georgia Cleveland home yesterday morning after a long illness, will be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of her son, W. I. Randolph, 132 West Henry street, conducted by the Rev. B. R. Turnipseed and the Rev. Marshall Mott. Interment will follow in Landrum cemetery.

Mrs. Randolph moved to Landrum from Santuc with her husband in 1899, and lived there until 14 months ago when she moved to Spartanburg. Her husband died at Landrum in 1918. — Spartanburg Herald.

Misses Lucile and Sallie McCown, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. M. McCown, have returned to their homes.

Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Bowes have returned from a cruise of the Great Lakes.

THE NEW MODERN

SINCLAIR SERVICE STATION

Under Management of

E. H. GIBBS

Assisted by Edward Bell

Is Now Open At

Mill Spring, N. C.

We have everything a big city service station should have. Up-to-date rest rooms for ladies and gentlemen. Drive up for service or just for a visit.

Universal Cooker

Designed for real cooking—Roasts, soups, cereals, or entire dinners, right down to desserts. Compact and with utensils shown — Please note the low operating cost—There's true economy. Will do anything an oven will do $10⁹⁵
Cost of operation: One and three-fifths cents per hour

DUKE POWER CO.

PHONE 210