

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 8 TRYON, N. C., MONDAY, SEPT. 9, 1935 Est. 1-31-28

Tryon School To Open on Monday, September 16th

By W. A. SCHILLETTER

The Tryon graded school will open for the 1935-36 session promptly at nine o'clock a. m., on Monday, September 16. On this day all pupils are requested to please report to their respective class rooms. They will be marched to the auditorium for a short opening exercise. All patrons are cordially invited to attend this exercise.

After the program the pupils will return to their rooms to receive a schedule of work, book list and lesson assignments.

Pupils entering the Tryon school for the first time, except first grade pupils, are asked to please register at the superintendent's office for classification on Friday and Saturday morning, September 13th and 14th from 9:00 to 12:00 a. m. We wish to have all pupils classified and assigned to grades before school opens.

We are pleased to welcome to our faculty membership Miss Genevieve Randle as teacher of English and history and Miss Carrie Williams as teacher of home economics. These two teachers come to us very highly recommended, having taught a number of years in the schools of North Carolina.

Teachers for 1935-36 Session

W. A. Schilletter, superintendent, teacher of biology, commercial and physical geography.

M. B. Caldwell, high school principal

—Continued on Back Page—

Senator Huey Long Shot By Political Foe

Baton Rouge, La., Sept. 8.—Senator Huey P. Long, Louisiana's political "dictator", was shot thru the right side tonight in the state capitol with a pistol in the hands of Dr. C. A. Weiss, Jr., an eye specialist of Baton Rouge and member of an anti-Long political family.

Boydguards of Senator Long immediately killed Dr. Weiss, literally riddling his body with bullets and leaving him dead on the floor of the corridor.

As the senator stepped out of the house door spectators said Dr. Weiss walked up to Long and, pressing the muzzle of a pistol close to his body, fired one shot. Then the bodyguards opened fire, killing the doctor, and assisted Senator Long down the stairs to an automobile.

Long was staggering and bleeding at the mouth. He maintained consciousness and talked to his assistants. At the hospital he was rushed to an operating table and Dr. Urban Maes, of New Orleans, of the medical staff of Louisiana State University, was summoned by airplane.

The hospital said the senator's condition was grave but Dr. Arthur Vidrine, head of the New Orleans Charity hospital, in charge of the case, said the bullet had not struck any vital organs and he did not consider the senator's condition critical.—Asheville Citizen.