

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 8 TRYON, N. C., FRIDAY, SEPT. 27, 1935 Est. 1-31-28

49 Years Service In The Ministry

On Sunday morning, Sept. 29, at 11 o'clock at the Erskine Memorial Congregational church, Dr. John Brittan Clark will have completed 49 years of service as a Christian Minister. The past nine of these years have been spent in Tryon. Dr. Clark who resigned recently on account of his health, expects to attend the service on Sunday morning and extend farewell greetings to his congregation. Dr. Lewis H. Keller, the supply minister, will preach on the splendid ministry of Dr. Clark, who served two Congregational churches in Brooklyn, N. Y., as pastor of Pilgrim Chapel and Lee Avenue Church; in Detroit, Mich., as pastor of Westminster Presbyterian church, and in Washington, D. C., as pastor of the First Presbyterian church.

Dr. and Mrs. Clark leave soon to make their temporary home with their son, the Rev. David Cartwright Clark, rector of the Episcopal church, Emanuel, of Cumberland, Maryland. They plan to spend the winter in Florida and the summers at their home in the Berkshires of Massachusetts.

J. R. Price Died This Morning

Joe R. Price, well-known blacksmith and carpenter of Tryon died this morning about six o'clock at home near McClure Service Station. Mr. Price was a native of Cooper Gap Township in Polk county and had lived here most of his life. His widow, a daughter and other relatives survive.

Palmer Gets CMTC Recommendation For Reserve Commission

Out of the 800 young men from the two Carolinas who were discharged from the Citizens Military Training Camp this summer at Ft. Bragg, N. C., Marion Palmer of Tryon was one of 23 recommended for reserve commissions as Second Lieutenants of Field Artillery upon the completion of certain studies in the Army Extension Course. These youths returned to their homes in the best of physical condition as a result of the wholesome food, outdoor activity and regular hours of sleep they had at Camp McArn. General Manus McCloskey, commander of the huge army post and Major Charles M. Busbee, under whose supervision the training of the youths was conducted, are well pleased with the results attained during the month of camp.

Women Must Have License to Fish

R. B. Williams, Polk county game protector, states that all female "fishermen" are also required by law, to obtain fishing licenses. Heretofore women were not required to have licenses to fish. He states that they are also required to have hunting licenses as well as male hunters.

League warns against war in Ethiopia. Covenant is invoked to forbid either nation starting strife. Asheville Citizen.