

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 8 TRYON, N. C., FRIDAY, OCT. 4, 1935 Est. 1-31-28

POLK EXHIBIT AT STATE FAIR

County Agent J. A. Wilson is getting up a 4-H club corn exhibit to send from Polk county to the State Fair at Raleigh. The exhibit will consist of ten 10-ear exhibits—100 ears of corn, required to make a County Exhibit.

Something to Rent ?

The Chamber of Commerce requests all persons who have apartments or rooms furnished for housekeeping to rent to please list them with local real estate agents so that the Chamber of Commerce will be in position to place inquiries.

Nash-Arledge

A marriage of interest to many friends throughout the two Carolinas was that of Miss Laura Morris Nash to Mr. John Thomas Arledge. The ceremony was performed by Dr. E. E. Bomar at high noon today at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Nash, at Landrum, S. C., in presence of immediate members of the two families. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Arledge of Columbus. He is a graduate of Wake Forest college and is a member of the law firm of Massenburg, McCown & Arledge of Tryon. The bride was educated at Maryville college and she has many friends and relatives throughout the Carolinas.

Following a short wedding trip in the Great Smoky Mountain National Park they will return to Tryon next week to make their home in the P. G. Morris apartments.

A Proclamation

WHEREAS the destruction of life and property by fire is a matter of concern to everyone, and

WHEREAS the reduction of fire waste can be affected in direct proportion to the amount of care exercised by all people, and

WHEREAS the President of the United States for the benefit of the American People as a whole and with the view of arousing the people of the United States to the importance of eliminating our enormous fire waste, has proclaimed the week of October 7-11

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK

THEREFORE, I, J. C. B. Ehringhaus, Governor of the State of North Carolina, do hereby proclaim the week of October 7-11 to be FIRE PREVENTION WEEK in order that the people of this State in every community shall individually and through our various organizations, discover and correct existing fire hazards, promote measures of public and private protection, extend instruction in fire prevention among adults, as well as school children, and arouse the people generally to the need for habits of greater care, and to this end I appeal to our citizens to thoroughly cooperate with the various fire departments throughout the State and I request that every Mayor issue a Proclamation. I earnestly solicit the cooperation of Chambers of Commerce, Civic and Women's Clubs, and the press.

Done at our City of Raleigh, this 21st day of September, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five.

J. C. B. EHRRINGHAUS,
By the Governor Governor
C. J. POWELL,
Private Secretary.