Skating Tonight

Chief Wofford stated this afternoon that Howard Street between Tryon Motor Company, and B. E. Samples' home would be reserved tonight until ten o'clock as a place for the children to skate. Police protection will be given so that parents may be free to let their children skate at this place free of danger from traffic.

Liked Apple Show

One of Polk county's most prominent men walked into the Apple Show this morning and liked the display of apples so much that he immediately donated five more dollars to increase the cash prize money. He thought the public ought to show its appreciation for the splendid work the growers have done.

The Tryon-Welcome Football score in the third quarter this afternoon was 15-0 in favor of Tryon.
