

This copy of the "World's Smallest Daily Newspaper" was printed especially for:.....

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POST OFFICE AT TRYON, N. C., UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 8 TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, OCT. 17, 1935 Est. 1-31-28

Travel Officials Arrive In Tryon

All Tryon extends its welcome today to the Carolinas Historic and Scenic Tour. North Carolina is rich in glorious historical events and beautiful scenery, but Tryon's wealth is not buried in its past, nor does it have the most beautiful scenery. This community's greatest asset is found in its climate, and in its interesting people who are living a fascinating present. They come to Tryon from all parts of the world and have seen the big things the old globe has to offer, but they like Tryon best. They say that Tryon has the best year round climate of any place in the world. They find fellowship here among fellow travelers and together they entertain themselves with their own activities such as horseback riding, hiking, tennis, golf, amateur dramatics, excursions to the mountains or following some hobby.

Something in the invigorating atmosphere and personality of the people gets hold of visitors and draws them back year after year. Sidney Lanier, the poet, spent his last days here; Mrs. Calvin Cool-

—Continued on Page Two—

Dance Friday At Gynasium

A combination dance will be given Friday night at the Tryon school gymnasium. Admission 50 cents. Barnett Brothers' string band will furnish the music.

MEMBERS OF TRAVEL PARTY

The following travel service heads and their wives here with the party:

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Martin, New York City; Mr. and Mrs. Eli Aylesworth, Providence, R. I.; George W. White, New York City; Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Colpitts, Boston, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. Barton F. Plimpton, Boston, Mass.; Miss L. E. Stevens, Providence, R. I.; Frank S. Montgomery, Harrisburg, Pa.; George E. Gillespie, Philadelphia, Pa.; Oscar Bernheim, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Mrs. Angus M. Taylor, Birmingham, Ala.; Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Latus, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Peter K. Hanssen, Brooklyn, N. Y.; John F. G. Keen, Philadelphia, Pa.; Theodore Meyer, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Miss Florence Schmit, St. Paul, Minn., and Miss Anna A. Egan, Pittsburgh, Pa.

The following counselors of automobile clubs arrived in the party:

Mr. and Mrs. Walter N. White, Philadelphia, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Burt L. Thompson, Cincinnati, O.; Miss Dorothy Ambramson, New York City; Elmer Jenkins, Washington, D. C.; Miss Emma T. Hodes, Baltimore, Md.; Miss Mildred J. Cristall, Buffalo, N. Y.; Reuben E. Mowry, Wilmington, Del.; Mrs. L. P. Hendrickson, Akron, O.; Mrs. W. A. Carper, Palmvra, Pa.; Mrs. Marble Weaver, Bluefield, W. Va.; W. K. S. Hershey, York, Pa.; Miss Laura E. Beaver, Altoona, Pa.; Miss Helen M. Doyle, Trenton, N. J.; Miss

—Continued on Page Two—