Travel Officials Enjoyed Visit

of by the usual commercial delegation.

Each guest was presented with a paper knife, hand-carved with the name Tryon on them, also a copy of "the World's Smallest Daily Newspaper". An attractive scrap book of Tryon containing Tryon scenes and hotel information will be sent to each guest later. The covers for these books will be made of thin wood, hand-lettered by the Toy-Makers.

General Chairman C. J. Lynch Entertainment Chairman Cart Brown and all those committeemen working on the program did a splendid job for Tryon.

Willie Suzans, colored, was severely bruised about 7:30 this morning when he lost control of a truck he was driving and crashed off Trade street near Martin's Garage. The truck was badly damaged, too.
