Drivers' Applications Have Arrived Here

The Tryon Motor Company announces in an advertisement in today's Tryon Daily Bulletin that they have received driver's license applications from Raleigh and that motorists wanting them may apply for them now as the time to get them without cost and examination will be up by November 1s.

Only 100,000 Drivers Licenses Mailed Out

Raleigh, Oct. 23.—Arthur Fulk, director of the highway safety division of the state revenue department, estimated today approximately 100,000 drivers licenses had been mailed as compared with approximately 800,000 applications received.

Fulk said all applications post-marked prior to midnight October 31 will be accepted without cost for the licenses.

Fulk called attention to section 5 of the uniform drivers' licenses act, which makes it unlawful for any person under the age of 21 years to drive a motor vehicle while it is in use as a public passenger carrying vehicle, such as busses. He said the law would be strictly enforced.—Asheville Citizen.

Fish Fry

The Wesley Brotherhood will give a Fish Fry tonight at Harmon Fied. These events have been so enjoyable during the summer that the club is extending the season as far as possible.
