

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 8

TRYON, N. C., FRIDAY, OCT. 25, 1935

Est. 1-31-28

Lanier Club Concerts Start Friday, Nov. 8th

The 1935-36 season of Lanier Club Concerts will be inaugurated on Friday evening, November 8th, when Benj. DeLoache, internationally known baritone will be heard in a recital at the Parish House. Mr. DeLoache made his first bid for fame as winner in the Atwater-Kent audition. After studies in New York and abroad, he has sung with the Philadelphia Symphony Orchestra under Leopold Stokowski, in the Metropolitan Opera, and this year represented American musicians in the King's Jubilee Concerts in London. Mr. DeLoache's concert tour will take him to all the larger musical centers of the country, and Tryon is fortunate indeed to have this opportunity to hear him in a recital.

Season tickets for the series of three Lanier club concerts will be on sale in a few days.

A Hallowe'en Supper-Party

Miss Dale Baldwin will entertain eight little friends with a Hallowe'en supper at 6 o'clock this afternoon at her home, "Sidabacon" on "Turnagin Lane". All guests are invited to come in costumes.

Combination Dance At The Tryon Gym

A combination dance will be given this evening at the Tryon school gymnasium. Music will be furnished by the Barnette Brothers String Band.

Benefit Bridge Very Successful

The benefit bridge-game party which was held at the Parish House on Thursday evening was very successful. This was sponsored by the Parent-Teacher Association's Ways and Means committee of which Mrs. H. L. Shelnutt and Mrs. J. S. Cromer are joint-chairmen. The amount of $38.00 which was taken in will be applied to the home economic funds.

At the conclusion of the games Mrs. E. P. Williams held the high score for the ladies and Mr. C. H. Helms for the men. The low score prizes went to Miss Addie Daniel and Mr. C. M. Eargle. Mrs. Harold Doubleday cut the consolation prize in the games contest.

Basketball Tonight

Tryon high school girls will play the town girls at 7:30 tonight at the Tryon gymnasium. "The school girls are little, but loud. They have been practicing hard and this promises to be an exciting game," says the school reporter. There will be a small admission of five cents.

Dr. Sewall Will Preach On Sunday

Dr. Chas. G. Sewall will fill the pulpit at the Erskine Memorial Congregational church on Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. His subject will be announced in Saturday's Bulletin.