

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 8

TRYON, N. C., FRIDAY, NOV. 1, 1935

Est. 1-31-28

Herbert E. Smith Passes Suddenly

Herbert E. Smith, head of the Carolina Stoker and Heating Co., passed away about 5 o'clock this morning from a weak heart as the result of a septic sore throat. Funeral arrangements have not been made pending the arrival of his mother from Greensboro. The deceased is survived by his widow and one daughter, Miss Jacqueline, 12, of Shelby, by a former marriage.

Mr. Smith had made Tryon his headquarters for several years and operated his business in Rutherford, Cleveland and Polk counties.

New Chevrolets Have Arrived Here

The new 1936 Chevrolet has arrived and will be on display for the first time Saturday morning at The Tryon Motor Company at the same time the new Chevrolet is introduced to the public all over the United States at every Chevrolet dealer's show rooms. An advertisement in today's Bulletin invites the Tryon people to be among the first to see this attractive new automobile.

Merchants Meet

Tryon merchants and business men will meet tonight at 7:30 to set in motion their plans to put on a bigger trade program for Tryon that will last during the fall season. Tryon's stores are among the most up-to-date in communities of this size.

Hallowe'en Carnival At School Tonight

The annual Hallowe'en Carnival for the Tryon school children will be held tonight at the Tryon school auditorium at 8 o'clock. Admission 5 and 10 cents. Exciting booths have been arranged such as "The Chamber of Terrors", "Balloon Bursting Contest," "Fish Pond," "Pinning Tail on Cat," etc.

HEADLINES

Italian rioters stage outbreak against British. Troops and police guard British consulate and embassy. Speech of Duce arouses crowds. Mussolini invokes state of economic siege over nation.—Asheville Citizen.

Helena, Mont., Oct. 31. — An earthquake which tore at an area 500 miles wide centered upon Helena today, killing at least two persons and injuring scores. Several buildings in this capital city of 12,000, already weakened by more than 500 earth shocks in 19 days, shuddered and collapsed.—Charlotte Observer.

Raleigh, Oct. 31. — Governor Ehringhaus tonight announced the appointment of Superior Court Judge William Augustus Devin of Oxford, as associate justice of the state supreme court to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Associate Justice Willis James Brogden of Durham.—Asheville Citizen.