Tryon-Saluda Plays Spartanburg "B"

The Tryon-Saluda team having emerged victorious over the Inman team will tackle the "B" squad from Spartanburg on Friday, Nov. 8th. This annual game always proves to be interesting due to the calibre of the visiting boys. At present Tryon-Saluda has five victories to its credit and is anxious to add a sixth. Inman crossed the local's goal for the first time this season.

There is doubt as to whether Blackwell will be able to play Friday but the quarterback position can be handled by Ward or Shields. Before the end of the season, Tryon-Saluda hopes to have its full force on the field. The Spartanburg boys play an open game with plenty of end runs, passes and reverses.

The local team will need a large crowd to help it win. The game will be played at Harmon Field at 3:30.
