

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 8 TRYON, N. C., FRIDAY, NOV. 8, 1935 Est. 1-31-28

HEADLINES

Tropical blow awaited by Florida Gulf Coast. Expect hurricane winds to strike coast east of Pensacola.

Utilities act held invalid by U. S. Court. Baltimore jurist says holding company law is "of no effect". Case is headed for high court. Companies expected to refuse to register with SEC.

Italian Legions are knocking at door of Makale. Fascist columns ready to descend on town at dawn today. Ethiopians seek to surprise foe. Mussolini strikes hard at war profiteers in Italy.

Hokpins denies that politics played in relief work. Director announces four more states cut off of direct relief.

Kentucky goes for Chandler by big margin. Victory for Democratic candidate conceded by GOP foe. Liquor repeal carries easily. Governor-elect pledges repeal of state sales tax.

Football Today

Tryon - Saluda and Spartanburg "B" play football this afternoon at Harmon Field at 3:30. The teams are said to be evenly matched.

De Loache to Sing Here Tonight

Benjamin De Loache, noted baritone, will sing tonight at the Parish House. A number of out-of-town people from Spartanburg, Asheville and other cities are expected. Ticket sales indicate increasing interest in this musical treat. The Parish House has been attractively decorated for the occasion.

SERVICE CHANGED ON ACCOUNT OF CONCERT

The Stewardship Service at the First Baptist church will begin earlier, at 7 o'clock tonight in order to dismiss in time for the Benjamin De Loache concert. These services have been very inspirational and well attended. All church members are urged to be present tonight. Visitors are welcome.

Landrum Land To Be Sold Saturday

A 250-acre tract on the North Pacolet river about six miles southeast from Landrum and two Landrum lots are to be sold by County Master LeRoy M. Moore at 10:30 a. m., Saturday on the 250-acre tract which is known as the W. C. Owens estate.

A four and a half acre tract located about one and a half miles from Landrum will also be sold at this time, all four pieces of realty being involved in the case of L. R. Owens et al., against Jesse Sane et al., a partition proceeding.

The two lots are situated on Bomar avenue and front 80 feet and extend 200 feet to the rear.—Spartanburg Herald.