Tryon-Saluda Plays Fruitland Institute

In one of the hardest games of the season, the Tryon-Saluda team will tackle the strong Fruitland team at Harmon Field on Friday, Nov. 15th. The visitors always have a very strong group of players and in the meetings of the two schools each have won one game. The game tomorrow will be the deciding one of the series.

Tryon will have Jones back in the lineup at halfback and Blackwell will see some service. In the game last Friday, Pearson, first string end received an injury to his foot and will be out for the rest of the season. His position will be taken care of by either Ezelle Foster, Glenn Foster or Carl McClure. The remainder of the squad is in fine shape and are determined to make up for their let-up in the last game. So far the team has played only straight football, but promises to open up with a bag of tricks for the remaining important games of the season. Hall Fletcher, which has an unusually strong team this season will be met in the last home game and the final game will be played at Newberry.

The weather promises to be ideal and for the last two games a good crowd is expected to cheer the locals on to victory.

Carolina, Duke continue heavy work for grid classic. Long scrimmage given Tar Heels by Carl Snavely. Carolina still drills behind closed gates for important tilt. Duke is working hard. West returns to practice; defense is troubling Coach Wade.

Hunt Club Picnic

The Tryon Riding & Hunt club will have a picnic at Cedar Cliff, Friday noon, November 15th, for all members and friends. Those wishing to ride horseback leave Harmon Field at 10:30. Bring your own sandwiches. The club will furnish steak and coffee. Phone 102 and give number in your party.
