

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 8 TRYON, N. C., TUESDAY, NOV. 19, 1935 Est. 1-31-28

Hear Gillette

A large number of Tryonites tuned in Monday night to hear William Gillette, noted retired actor, impersonate Sherlock Holmes in a radio drama. Mr. Gillette was a former resident of Tryon and lived at Thousand Pines Inn.

P.-T. A. HEARS MAJOR SHARP

Major Bernard Sharp addressed the Tryon P.-T. A. on Monday afternoon at the Tryon school auditorium. He talked of the League of Nations and the European situation in general and the effects of the Italo-Ethiopian war. A large crowd enjoyed the interesting address. A number of good reports were received from P.-T. A. committees. The market basket committee reported a collection of $35.06. Supt. Schilleter invited the members to view the new sewing rooms of the Domestic Science department. When the girls begin their cooking course after Christmas they will make and serve tea at the January meeting of the P.-T. A. Hostesses for the social hour Monday were Mrs. R. S. Jackson, Mrs. C. N. Sayre, Mrs. Lloyd Bolinger, and Mrs. W. Y. Wilkins.

HEADLINES

Storm leaves path of havoc in northeast. Atlantic Seaboard is hit by worst northeaster in 20 years. Snow and ice cover big area. Whole towns flooded by high tides in Jersey and Long Island.

Japan ready to proclaim new nation. Troops are prepared to enforce freedom of North China.

Tryon-Saluda Vs. Hall - Fletcher

On Friday, Nov. 22, football fans will have their last chance to see a game in Tryon this year. The local team meets the string Hall-Fletcher school of Asheville. The visitors are bringing an unusually strong eleven to Tryon and one of the best games of the year is in prospect. The Tryon-Saluda gridgers are anxious to win this game and put on a good show in their final home appearance.

Starting off the season with what looked like a mediocre squad they have come along rapidly and developed into a formidable aggregation, and are reaching their peak in the final two games. Injuries have handicapped the season, but with the return of Blackwell and Jones to the line-up, the two backfields will do some fast stepping Friday.

The line has stood up well all season with Green, McGeachy and Kerhulas giving great performances in every game. In the Hall-Fletcher game these three will be ably supported by Fox, Foster, Chapman and Heatherly. The reserves, Parker, H. Shields, McClure and Holbert are ready to take the place of the first string and have been showing up well all season.

The people of Tryon are urged to be at Harmon Field at 3:30 Friday and support the team in its final home game.