Echoes From Travel Officials' Visit To Tryon

TRAVEL BUREAU
THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK
OF SAINT PAUL

November 21, 1935

Mr. Chas. J. Lynch,
Chairman Tour Committee,
Tryon Chamber of Commerce
Tryon, North Carolina.

Dear Mr. Lynch:

I was simply delighted with the Tryon booklet made especially for me. It is being proudly and prominently displayed in our office on the consultation table, where our clients are enjoying it very much.

It is a book of memories too, because I loved your friendly mountains with their brilliant coloring and the hearty hospitality of your generous citizens.

With best wishes, I am,
Cordially and sincerely
FLORENCE SCHMIT.

Funeral Services For Auto Wreck Victims

Forest City, Nov. 25.—Funeral services for Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Steadman, who were fatally injured in an automobile crash in Forest City Sunday night, will be held today (Tuesday) afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Green Creek Baptist church in Polk county.—Asheville Citizen.

THANKSGIVING SERVICE

Union Thanksgiving services will be held at the First Baptist church at 11 o'clock on Thursday morning with the Methodist minister, the Rev. L. R. Akers, Jr., preaching. The Baptist choir will sing the anthem, "Give Thanks Unto God."

Psychology Class Formed At Landrum

Landrum, Nov. 24.—A class in psychology has been organized. It is to meet every Thursday evening and will be taught by Mr. James Brooks. The class held its first meeting recently at the home of the Rev. J. S. Lyons.—Spartanburg Herald.

Tryon To Play At Newberry

Newberry, Nov. 25.—Newberry Hi ends their season here Wednesday against the strong Tryon, N. C., team.

The Tarheels are coached by Marcus Caldwell, a Newberry boy who usually brings strong teams and this season is one of his best.

The Bulldogs have had an in and out season but each man is in shape with Baker, Ringer and Williams playing their last game for Newberry Hi, so fans are expecting a real hard-fought game.—Spartanburg Herald.

On Radio

Miss Martha Berry, founder and director of the Berry schools in the mountains of North Georgia, will be heard over WWNC tonight at 10:15 during a special dinner tendered her by Mrs. John Henry Hammond. Miss Berry has devoted her life to the education of the mountain children in Georgia and from her schools have come many students who have gone far in the field of medicine, religion and education.—Asheville Citizen.
