Polk Veterans to Get $112,000.00

The bonus bill which Congress yesterday sent to President Roosevelt will result in a vast shower of spending in the 18 counties of Western North Carolina, in the opinion of most World War vets.

According to the Veterans administration 63,926 North Carolina veterans will get $34,622,162. In the 18 counties the total amount to be distributed will be $4,300,186 of which $112,539 will go to Polk county.

Basketball Tonight

In what promises to be another exciting game, the Tryon high school teams will meet Fletcher high, former Henderson county champions. All the games this year have been thrilling from start to finish with the final scores but a few points apart. The games will begin at 7:30 with the girls playing first. Fletcher will bring a tall rangy group of players with plenty of experience.

Referee, Eargle (Newberry).
Umpire, Edwards (Columbus).

Cold Weather Hits Nation

Records broken in many sections as below zero temperatures strike the north, blocking traffic on icy streets and roads. 18 persons have lost their lives.

WESLEY BROTHERHOOD

The Wesley Brotherhood will meet tonight at 7 o'clock in the dining room of the Methodist church. The Rev. L. J. Keels will be the principal speaker.

On the Air

Joe E. Brown, the comedian, will be in a radio comedy to be broadcast tonight from 10 to 11 o'clock on the Kraft program as Bing Crosby's guest, NBC stations.
