

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 8 TRYON, N. C., FRIDAY, JAN. 24, 1936 Est. 1-31-28

FILLERS

We have a request for the names of the manufacturers' of Polk county's noted corn whiskey. Twenty-nine cases for violating the Prohibition laws will be tried next week in Columbus. All interested may get in touch with the convicted parties.

It isn't legal to manufacture liquor in Polk county, but it is all right with the State to make and sell wine if you have a government permit. Dr. Louis Fuldner has established Polk county's first legal winery since the new law passed. Falerno is the beautiful name designating this new enterprise, which bottles Tryon Grape Juice in convenient form. The first supply has already been exhausted, some of it went to Milwaukee to make it even more famous. However, more is being bottled.

Wood's press is printing a new telephone directory for the Polk County Telephone Co.

Telephone news items about your guests and friends. Office phone 99. Residence 126-J. This is 1-9-3-6 and we are trying to put out a better paper.

One week from today the Tryon Daily Bulletin will be 8 years old. A number of its first newsboys have grown up, married and have children. Time really marches on. We don't have time to take stock of things as we move rapidly on day after day, but it gives a hick editor a lot of satisfaction to see dozens of notes marked PAID.

Every time a Tryon person buys an automobile out of Tryon it costs the community hundreds of dollars. If bought from the local

Basketball Tonight

At 7:30 tonight Tryon high will again meet Sunny View. The games in the last meeting of the two schools were very closely fought and tonight the same is in view.

Through the courtesy of Dr. Green the school has been able to put up a stove in the seating section. This adds greatly to the comfort of the spectators and his kindness is appreciated very much by the Athletic Association.

The girls start their game at 7:30.

Referee, Eargle (Newberry).
Umpire, Edwards (Columbus).
