A L HILL JR

Hundreds of friends throughout the county will regret the passing of this popular man who was the sheriff of Polk county for eight years and prominent in Tryon business affairs. The deceased was affectionately known by thousands as "Link" Hill. He left the county about ten years ago and for a time made his home at Burlington, N. C. until a few years ago.

Funeral plans were not known here at time of going to press.

Besides his widow he is survived by two children, Dr. A. L. Hill, Jr., and Mrs. James Carrington (Josephine).
