

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 8 TRYON, N. C., TUESDAY, JAN. 28, 1936 Est. 1-31-28

Hotel Tryon Has Opening on Monday

A large number of Tryon citizens attended the formal opening of Hotel Tryon on Monday afternoon from 3:30 to 5:30 at which time the hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Costa as owners and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Shelly as operators.

The attractive new hotel was beautifully decorated with acacia and evergreens. Delicious cake, coffee and tea were served in the dining room. The guests were escorted all through the hotel and invited to inspect all the rooms including the kitchen and private dining room with horse table.

Gov. Allen Dead

Radio news flashes today noon stated that Gov. O. K. Allen of Louisiana died suddenly from cerebral hemorrhage.

Juvenile Problems Are Discussed At Tryon Kiwanis

W. E. Kilpin, Rev. C. P. Burnett and Judge J. Will Pless were the chief speakers at the Tryon Kiwanis club today noon at Hotel Tryon. Mr. Kilpin and Mr. Burnett brought out the need for social service in helping the youths between 16 and 21 who are without proper guidance. Judge Pless recommended the establishment of "first offender" camps where these young men can be kept properly trained without having to associate with hardened criminals. The project was adopted by the club as one of its objectives, and the Tryon Rotary club has been invited to join in this movement.

Abel Lynch Hill

Kings Mountain, Jan. 27.—Abel Lynch Hill, 55, died at 6 a. m. Monday morning of a heart attack. Mr. Hill, a native of Rutherford county, lived at Tryon for a number of years. He was sheriff of Polk county for eight years and was a licensed embalmer. Surviving are his widow, who was Miss Cora Lecompte of Iowa; a son, Dr. L. Hill of Kings Mountain; one daughter, Mrs. J. E. Carrigan, Jr.; three brothers, W. R. Hill of Rutherfordton, J. H. Hill of Spindale, A. O. Hill of Elberton, Ga.; three sisters, Misses Mary Sue and Carrie Hill of Rutherfordton, Mrs. John Flack of Chimney Rock. Funeral arrangements are not complete, but interment will be in Burlington, where Mr. Hill lived 10 years.—Charlotte Observer.

DR. EDWARD GWATHMEY ADDRESSES TRYON PEOPLE

Approximately one hundred people attended the Lanier benefit tea-lecture given at the library on Saturday afternoon.

Dr. Edward Gwathmey, president of Converse college delivered a splendid lecture on "Poe and His Raven."

The library was decorated with yellow jessamine, galax leaves and hemlock. Tea was in charge of the committee chairman, Mrs. Nelson Jackson, Jr., and Mrs. Pickens Bacon, Mrs. Julian Calhoun, Mrs. Priestly Conyers, Jr.

Following the lecture Dr. and Mrs. Gwathmey were guests at a dinner party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Priestly Conyers, Jr.