

Camp Rites

Funeral services for Mrs. Joseph Twitty Camp, nee Mary Elizabeth Jones, 64, were held this morning at 10:30 at her home, "Sleepy Hollow". Interment followed in the Sandy Plains cemetery. The Rev. C. P. Burnett of Tryon officiated, assisted by Rev. R. D. Bird, and Rev. Ira Swanman.

The deceased is survived by her husband, five brothers: Judge Clem J. Jones of Athens, Tenn.; C. W. Jones of Athens, Tenn.; Gus and E. T. Jones of Fresno, Calif.; A. H. Jones of New York City; and two sisters: Mrs. Ford K. Brown of Annapolis, Md.; and Mrs. Addis Alexander of Seattle, Wash.; and the following children: J. M. Camp of Mill Spring; L. F. Camp of Charlotte; Mrs. A. B. Chisholm and Miss Ann Frances Camp of San Antonio, Texas; Mrs. H. T. Edmonson; Mrs. James Benenson; and Miss Roe Camp of Moultrie, Ga. There are several grandchildren.

Mrs. Camp's father, the late Rev. Milnor Jones, was a pioneer Episcopal minister of this section. He built the first Episcopal church in Tryon and was its rector.

Hunting Season Closes Saturday

R. B. Williams, county game protector states to the press, that the hunting season for rabbit and quail will close on February 15th. He also states that the trapping season for muskrat, otter and mink closes on that date. The law provides that hunters may hunt on the last day of the season.

A deputy collector of Internal Revenue will come to Tryon on Monday, February 24, to assist taxpayers in preparing their federal income tax returns. He will make his headquarters at the Tryon Bank & Trust Co. All single people with incomes of $1,000 per year are required to file a return; and married people with incomes of $2,500 and over are required to do the same.

WHAT PRICE HEALTH?

You may "save" a little by doing your own washing, but will it buy back youth?

No woman ever "saved" enough by doing her own washing to make up for the sacrifice of youth and beauty and health. Let us lift this burden—let us make each washday a holiday in which you can do all those exciting things you have always been too busy to do before! Just phone for service when your bundle is ready.
