

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 9, Est. 1-31-28. TRYON, N.C. WEDNESDAY, FEB. 26, 1936

Another Change In Drama Fortnightly

"Dangerous Corners" will be presented in Tryon at the Parish House on March 3. This is a new date. Forget about the other dates. Remember only the Third, George III, or any other third that will help you to remember March 3rd. The time has been changed too, back to the regular Drama Fortnightly hour of 8 o'clock. There'll be only one performance so make plans to get there before 8, if you want a seat. The play will be directed by Miss Hazel Abbott of Converse college. The season ticket holders will have first choice of seats up to 7:50 p. m. Admission will be 50c for non-ticket holders.

Polk County History Given At Kiwanis

C. P. Rogers, a student of Polk county affairs, gave an interesting history of Polk county at the Kiwanis club on Tuesday noon at Hotel Tryon. Mr. Rogers has consented to have the paper published and it will appear soon in an issue of The Polk County News. Guests at the meeting were Capt. A. L. Smith and Col. George Allen of Washington, D. C., Judge J. J. Gentry and John G. Landrum of Landrum, Dr. B. B. Bishop, D. S. Blois and M. R. McCown.

Boston, Feb. 25. — Red-brown dust from the western plains, swirled eastward by strong winds sprinkled in New England today.

Tryon And Inman Split In Basketball

Tryon high school girls' basketball team lost to Inman Tuesday night at Inman by a score of 29-21, but Tryon boys won their game from the Inman boys in a hard fought battle 27-25 after being tied 25-25. Albert Leonard and Marion Brock led the scoring for Tryon.

On The Radio

The foremost Indian "moose callers" of Nova Scotia, leading deer guides and trout fisherman will tell inside secrets of hunting and angling over WEAf stations tonight at 10 o'clock. During the quarter hour program Louis Paul, a full-blooded MicMac Indian, will give the call the hunters use to attract the attention of the moose, while Esra Eisener will describe moose farm in Nova Scotia. Capt. Joe Penny, will tell how a Chicago sportsman landed a 956-pound tuna and Elton Smith will relate his experiences while bear hunting in Nova Scotia.

Unofficial reports from China Tuesday said martial law was proclaimed in Tokyo after the assassination of several Japanese political leaders.

The Reuters (British) News Agency reported from Shanghai that a coup d'etat had placed the powerful militarist bloc in control of the government.

Addis Ababa, Feb. 25.—Ethiopia claimed victory in raid on Italian foe today.