DOG SHOW THIS AFTERNOON AT 2

Tryon Minister Is Honored

News has been received in Tryon that Rev. L. J. Keels, pastor of the First Baptist church here, has been listed in the latest edition of "Who's Who In The Clergy". This is a biographical encyclopaedia of eminent clergymen representing the important denominations in America, and will be off the press this month.

Mr. Keels was born in Lynchburg, S. C., but moved to Columbia at an early age. He attended the city schools in Columbia, University of South Carolina, and Furman University. His theological work was done at the Baptist Bible Institute, New Orleans, La., from which institution he holds the Master Degree.

For three years Mr. Keels did a work of civic importance as Resident Instructor and Court Worker in the Warrington Home for Boys, New Orleans. His ministerial career began in 1923 when he was ordained a clergyman. He held pastorates in Eastern North Carolina and in Union, S. C., before coming to Tryon. In 1927 he married Miss Virginia Timme of Chester, S. C., a music graduate of Greenville Woman's college.

Mimosa Inn Open

Tryon's famous old hotel which has entertained prominent guests for generations is now open for the season, according to an announcement of Manager W. M. Hester.

Many Interesting Classes to Be Shown—Dog Race Is Feature of Show.

Beautiful weather is scheduled for Tryon's Dog Show this afternoon beginning at 2 o'clock at Harmon Field. The pride of the community in dogland will be on exhibition and the boy with a dog of uncertain ancestry will be just as proud of his pet as the owner of the prize pedigreed animal. There will be coon dogs, possum dogs, terriers, bulldogs, collies, police, wire-haired, and mutts of every description. The entry fee is ten cents for each class the dogs are entered and there are some very interesting classes. Admission for spectators is 25c per person. The judges for the show are Dr. George E. Vincent, Dr. David L. Edsall, and Chas. H. Conrad. Mrs. Dudley C. Smith, Mrs. C. B. DuCharme, Miss Barbara Hill, Ralph C. Erskine, Jerry Drew, Watson Snyder, Lefty Flynn, C. J. Lynch, W. A. Schilleter and the Boy Scouts make up the officials of the show, with K. A. Bowen as general chairman.

McNeely Buys Smith Property In Valley

The Grant Miller property formerly occupied by the late L. W. Smith, has been sold to R. L. McNeely, Tryon merchant. Mr. McNeely plans to remodel the dwelling and make other improvements before moving out in the Valley.
