Piedmont Scout Organization Is To Be Honored

According to telegraphic instructions from Lorne W. Barclay, director of activities of the Boy Scouts of America with headquarters in New York City, the Piedmont Council will be honored in being given the opportunity of exhibiting at the National Training Conference of Scout Executives at French Lick, Ind., during the coming week, material prepared by the Piedmont Council Scouts for the National Jamboree which was to have been held at Washington last summer but was cancelled because of the prevalence of infantile paralysis. A special request also has been made for the showing of the colored motion pictures of the Piedmont Boy Scout camp which is located at Lake Lanier, near Tryon and regarded as the outstanding Scout camp in the Southeast.

R. M. Schiele, Scout Executive of the Piedmont Council, who is serving on five major National commissions will be in attendance at the conference.

Lecture Thursday

Dr. Edwin Barlow Evans of Limestone college will lecture on Thursday afternoon at the Lanier library at 3:30. He will talk on Joseph Conrad. Admission 25c.

More than billion for relief seen. WPA and PWA are defended by Democrats. F. R. undetermined on exact amount to be asked.

Concert Good; Attendance Small

The only rainy night in many days prevented a large crowd from hearing a splendid concert Tuesday night given by the Spartanburg Male chorus at the Tryon school auditorium. Those who heard it were high in their praise of the splendid performance of these South Carolina musicians.

Tournament Tonight

The first clash in the County Basketball Tournament will be held tonight at the Tryon school gym at 7:30 when the Tryon high school boys play the Stearns high school boys and the Tryon girls play the Sunny View high school girls.

Mrs. Jervy Buys Thos. Elder House

The Thomas L. Elder residence on Lindcourt Drive, advertised for sale in yesterday's Tryon Daily Bulletin, was sold today to Mrs. Rebecca Jervy, owner of Melrose Lodge. The residence is near the Lodge and will be convenient for guests. Mr. and Mrs. Elder will return to New York on Sunday after their annual visit here. Mr. Elder came to Tryon several years ago for his health and the climate did so much for him in a few months that he found it not necessary to live here all the time. He and Mrs. Elder will continue to come to Tryon every spring.
