Vol. 9, Est. 1-31-28. TRYON, N. C. TUESDAY, MARCH 17, 1936

LETTERS

March 17th.

To the Editor:

There is considerable talk about mistreatment of negroes on the local streets, particularly on Saturday nights. Northern visitors, here on account of the "beautiful scenery and delightful climate," are both interested and indignant, and are inclined to view the incidents as evidence of general Southern lawlessness and persecution of the colored people.

If recurrences of abuse are not prevented there will soon be a clash that will give Tryon some undesirable publicity.

Bernard Sharp.

Miss Holden Injured

The following clipping from Saturday's New York Sun will be of interest to Miss Holden's many friends in Tryon:

"A hit-and-run taxi driver struck and seriously injured Miss Euphenia Holden, 58 years old, of the New Weston Hotel, 34 East Fiftieth street, last night as she was crossing Fiftieth street, near Madison avenue. Miss Holden was removed to the New York Hospital, for the Ruptured and Crippled."

Fishing News

All fishing in Polk county will be closed from April 15 to June 10 except for trout. The trout season will open on April 16.

A prominent Tryonite says the severe cold weather is the result of balloonists puncturing the stratosphere.
