

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 9, Est. 1-31-28. TRYON, N. C. WEDNESDAY, MARCH 18, 1936

Bakers Buy Clark Valley Property

Mr. and Mrs. James M. Baker of Tryon have bought the Burton Clark property in Pacolet Hills and will improve it for their home in the near future. An almost completed new house is located on the nine acre tract. Sale was made through C. J. Lynch, local realtor.

Miss McFarland On Radio, Sunday

Cullowhee, March 17.—Miss Betty McFarland of Tryon will appear in a "repeat" radio broadcast program presented by Western Carolina Teachers college over station WWNC, Asheville, Sunday, March 22, from 3 to 3:30 p. m. Eastern Standard Time. The name of the broadcast is "A Teacher's College in the Open Country."

The program was given over WSM, Nashville, Tenn., Friday evening, February 21, at 7:30 o'clock, Eastern Standard Time. Requests have been made for a second presentation of the program because of the publicity it gives to the Great Smoky Mountains National Park.

Drama Fortnightly Tonight & Thursday

The Drama Fortnightly presents "Two Crooks and a Lady," a play in one act, by Eugene Pillot, directed by Charles G. Sewall. The characters are as follows: Miller, the Hawk, Baxter Haines; Lucille, his accomplice, Miss Ferdinanda Poppe; Mrs. Sims-Vane, Mrs. C. P. Rogers; Miss Jones, her companion, Miss Laura Peaseley; Police Inspector, Ralph C. Erskine.

Also Impersonations and Song Sketches by Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Flynn.

And "Wurzel - Flummery", a comedy in one act, by A. A. Milne, directed by Mrs. Dudley Smith. The characters are as follows: Robert Crawshaw, M. P., Harold Crandall; Margaret Crawshaw, his wife, Mrs. L. P. Mills; Viola Crawshaw, his daughter, Mrs. Dudley Smith; Richard Meriton, M. P., Frederick Bowes; Denis Clifton, Samuel Bingham.

(This ends the Drama Fortnightly season).

A Correction

In announcing yesterday that Dr. George F. Taylor was the head of the department of Biblical Literature and Philosophy at Converse college. The statement

—Continued on Back Page—

Make Horse Show Reservations Now

With George A. Cathey at Blue Ridge Weavers
First come, first served. See Chart for Spaces