

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 9, Est. 1-31-28. TRYON, N. C. FRIDAY, MARCH 20, 1936

Opportunity Knocked At Editor Twice

'Tis said that opportunity knocks but once but it came to the editor of The Bulletin two times Thursday afternoon and he couldn't take advantage of it either time. The first time it followed him to the basement where he was printing the world's smallest daily newspaper. A nice appearing young man walked up and asked, "Are you Mr. Vining? They told me upstairs that I'd find you down here. I like to see people doing unusual things. Do you have an opened package of Wrigley's Chewing Gum?" Was my face red? Everybody in the shop except me had been carrying Wrigley's chewing gum in his pocket for days hoping the Wrigley man would come along and ask him the question he asked me, so that Mr. Spear would give him a green dollar bill for his opinion of the chewing gum. But he didn't ask them.

I told Mr. Speak that I would like to publish the names of those in Tryon who had received Wrigley dollars. He said that he would have to go out to his car and get them. While he was gone would have been a good time to get some gum, but I didn't. I didn't think it would do any good. When he

—Continued on Page Four—

Rogers to Speak At Tea Saturday

Carroll Pickens Rogers, a thorough student of government and civic affairs, will address the Lanier club gathering at the Library on Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock on the history of Polk county. Mr. Rogers has been doing much research work in compiling his history which outlines some of the interesting incidents in the development of the county from British colonial days to the present.

The tea which begins at 4 o'clock promises to be the largest of the season and the committee would be glad to have reservations beforehand, but all who come will be cared for. The committee is composed of Miss Matilda Giles, Mrs. James B. Hester, Mrs. G. L. Canfield, Mrs. Bernard Sharp, Mrs. H. Lee Shelnett. Reservations may be made through Miss Giles. Admission 50c.

Notice

All persons desiring to burn new grounds, please notify your neighbors three days in advance. Those failing to do so will be prosecuted or compelled to bear all expenses if fire spreads to adjoining lands.

Make Horse Show Reservations Now

With George A. Cathey at Blue Ridge Weavers
First come, first served. See Chart for Spaces