

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 9, Est. 1-31-28. TRYON, N. C. TUESDAY, MARCH 24, 1936

Plans Bachelor Dinner For Alexander Knott

Because most of his friends will be unable to go south the week of April 11 to attend his wedding in Tryon, N. C., to Miss Constance Burtenshaw, the prospective bridegroom, Alexander Knott, will be given a bachelor dinner here on the evening of April 3 at the Blackstone hotel. His brother, Harry A. Knott, Jr., who will be going south to be best man, will be host at the dinner.

This is the only prenuptial party that has been planned for Mr. Knott in Chicago, but there will be several affairs in Tryon the week of the wedding. Of course, when he and the new Mrs. Knott return from their wedding trip through Virginia, many of the bridegroom's friends will be entertaining to welcome the bride to her new home. Miss Burtenshaw is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Burtenshaw of Detroit and Tryon.

Mr. Knott will be going south on the Monday or the Tuesday before the wedding, and on Wednesday a whole carful of his ushers, accompanied by their wives, will leave Chicago to arrive in Tryon in time for the bridal dinner Mr. and Mrs. Burtenshaw are giving on Thursday because the following day is Good Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. William S. Covington, who moved recently from Seattle to Omaha, are coming from their new home to go to Tryon with the group of ushers. The other ushers are William D. Reichmann,

—Continued on Back Page—

Attractive Booklets Are Received Here

The Tryon Chamber of Commerce has just received a number of beautifully illustrated booklets from the N. C. Department of Conservation and Development entitled "Come to North Carolina for Historical, Recreational and Scenic Interest." In these books is an invitation from Governor Ehringhaus, pictures of a beautiful moon coming over the mountain, long hanging moss near the shores, scenes of the mountain, piedmont, sandhills and coastal sections including historical houses, churches, monuments and reproduction in colors of paintings showing the state in spring, summer, autumn and winter, also a sportsman's map in colors showing the various game and fishing grounds. There are only a few of these booklets for distribution to people interested. So get yours as soon as possible at the Chamber of Commerce in the Hester building.

Red Cross Funds Increasing Daily

Since the $182.15 was reported Monday for the Red Cross flood sufferers fund approximately $50 more has been donated to the local chapter to be forwarded to the national organization, making a total of over $230. Anyone desiring to contribute may do so by sending check to J. B. Hester, treasurer, Miss Marjorie Capps at Miss Sildine's, Mrs. George A. Cathey at Blue Ridge Weavers or the Bulletin office.