INTERESTING GARDEN CLUB PROGRAM

The Tryon Garden club held a very interesting program on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George L. Canfield in Gillette Woods. Mrs. R. T. Brooks read a very clever paper on Random Notes on Gardening. Miss Cristobel Sawyer was appointed chairman of a committee to seek co-operation with other civic organizations to do some roadside planting. Half of the proceeds of the Garden club supper on April 9 at Hotel Tryon will be donated to St. Luke's hospital. The club voted to help Miss Mabel Colgate do some landscaping around the Katherine Beatson Health House. Miss Alice Ball's original paintings from which pictures were made for her bird book will be exhibited at home of Mrs. M. B. Flynn on the afternoon of April 3. A silver offering will be taken for this event. The Mountain market will be held on April 7 at the Katherine Beatson Health House. An interesting plant exchange was conducted which netted a neat sum for the club. New members voted in were Mrs. David L. Edsall, Mrs. C. Arthur Lincoln and Mrs. Louis Stearns.

Bulletin Devil Gets International Notice

When Henry D. Shankle, Jr., former printer's devil on The Tryon Daily Bulletin, left Tryon last summer for Portland, Oregon, he made a pretty good record driving alone the 3,000 mile journey in an old Model T Ford. The trip was made without car trouble and with such little expense that the Ford Motor Co., took a picture of the Ford and wrote a story about Henry Shankle and the Bulletin in this month's issue of the Ford news magazine which goes to all parts of the world.
