

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

SETH M. VINING, Editor

PUBLISHED EVERY DAY EXCEPT SUNDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Louis H. Hein, who have been spending some time in Florida on their way home to Glencoe, Ill., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Brintnall at their home in the Valley. Also Mrs. William T. Grey of Evanston, Ill., and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Brion of Glencoe, Ill., were guests while on their way to Charleston.

Col. Luke Lea, Tennessee publisher-politician, who has been in Raleigh prison for the past two years in connection with Asheville bank failures, was paroled today by Governor Ehringhaus.

7,000 Ethiopians were killed yesterday by the Italians.

Hear Ye! Hear Ye! Ladies and gentlemen, wear a gardenia on your riding suit to the Horse Show. Spectators wear carnations. Order now before the rush. Bamboo Fiber Flower Shop, opposite Dr. Derby.—Adv. eod.

Newspaper Reporters—You are in a great training school for the profession of Advertising. Learn technique through interesting home study course. M. G. Potter, Representative, International Correspondence Schools, 191 Carlisle St., Spartanburg, S. C.—Adv. 234

Peoples Insurance Agency

J. B. HESTER, Mgr.

ALL KINDS of INSURANCE

PHONE 37

Hester Bldg. Tryon, N. C.

Proper arrangement of an estate may prevent forced liquidation due to the new inheritance tax laws.

W. R. JACKSON

Denton's
Phone 4013
Haywood Street

Will present the "Easter Parade" of the newest clothes, including spectator and active sports, street, afternoon and evening models.

Styles for the SMART WOMAN and for the sophisticated Miss will be shown with proper accessories.

Under the auspices and for the benefit of—

St. Luke's Hospital

Thursday Evening, April
2nd, 8:30 to 10:30 P. M.

At OAK HALL

ADMISSION—50c