Red Cross Asks Polk County For $350.00 To Aid The Storm Area

Chairman W. A. Schilleter of the Polk County Chapter of the American Red Cross, has received the following telegram from Washington, D. C., national headquarters:

“W. A. Schilleter,
“Chairman Polk County Chapter
American Red Cross,
“Tryon, N. C.

“Reports which have come to us today indicate great need to tornado suffereres in Tupelo, Miss., Gainesville, Ga., and several counties in Alabama, Georgia, Tennessee, South Carolina. Reports still incomplete. These in addition to devastating tornadoes in Greensboro, North Carolina, Cordele, Ga., and other Georgia counties last week create a serious need for relief funds over and above those previously requested of you. It is essential that carefully planned and vigorous campaign for funds be started in your Chapter without delay, your Chapter quota is $350 this over and above previous flood relief quotas. Advise action you are taking promptly.
