Market Postponed

The Easter Mountain Market scheduled for this afternoon at the Katherine Beatson Health House has been postponed until Saturday. The market will be open all day. Tea will be served in the afternoon. For reservations phone Mrs. F. P. Bacon. Guests or others in Tryon without cars should notify Mrs. H. H. Parmelee and transportation will be provided for them. All those having cars with space for extra passengers will help the cause considerably by calling Mrs. Parmelee.

At the Hospital

Chairman Charles G. Sewall reports that donations for St. Luke's hospital are still being received and that if those friends who are being counted upon come across as expected the amount necessary to maintain the hospital will be raised. All old friends and new friends are urged to do as much as they can so the committee can make its final report.
