Band Concert

The first concert of the Tryon High School after only four months training was enthusiastically received on Thursday evening at the Tryon school auditorium. Many music lovers expressed their delight over the remarkable performance of these young people who have made so much progress in so short a time. The band is directed by Pat Garnett, conductor of the Spartanburg High School band. Mr. Garnett is a native of Texas and was trained under a member of Sousa's band. He is an inspiration to the members of the Tryon band. The concert last night was presented for the purpose of raising money to purchase equipment and musical instruments. Anyone having a musical instrument to donate or sell cheap might dispose of it satisfactorily by helping Tryon build a band.

Market Saturday

The Easter Mountain Market and tea will be held on Saturday at the Katherine Beatson Health House near Mill Spring. Reservations for the tea should be made with Mrs. F. P. Bacon. Anyone having passenger room in their autos may notify Mrs. H. H. Parmelee, and those not having a way to go may also notify Mrs. Parmelee.

Hotel Tryon served 84 guests Thursday night at the family night supper which was donated by Mr. Shelley and Mr. Costa to the Garden club who in turn divided with St. Lukes hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Shelley, managers of the hotel served the large crowd very efficiently and the guests expressed their pleasure over the service.

Big Hound Show

The Tryon Hound Show held in conjunction with the Tryon Horse Show every year, is one of the largest of its kind in the United States and it is very favorably reported in leading hunt magazines over the country. Manager C. W. Ballenger is expecting one of his best shows this year. Judge Alex Parrish of Berea, Ky., one of the outstanding authorities on dogs in America, will judge the Hound Show here on April 15.

Storm Relief $44.51

Funds in answer to an appeal for $350 made by the Red Cross to aid storm and flood sufferers have reached $44.51 according to a statement by Treasurer J. B. Hester, today. This leaves a balance of over $300 yet to be raised by Polk county people to help their neighbors in Anderson, Greenville and Tupelo. Local receivers for this fund are Miss Marjorie Capps at Missildine's, Mrs. Cathey at Blue Ridge Weavers, Mrs. Vining at The Bulletin office or to Treasurer J. B. Hester.

Burgess for Senate

Mayor John R. Burgess of Columbus announces in today's Bulletin his candidacy for the State Senate. Mr. Burgess was in the campaign six years ago and came out high man in the first primary with C. P. Rogers and W. K. McLean. In the run off Mr. McLean won. Mr. Burgess is the first to announce publicly for this office.
