

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 9, Est. 1-31-28. TRYON, N. C. THURSDAY, APRIL 30, 1936

Flower Show At Parish House; Fri.

The third annual Tryon Flower Show will be held at the Parish House on Friday afternoon from 2 to 6:30 p. m., sponsored by the Tryon Garden club. Admission 15c. children exhibiting in Class 15 admitted free.

All entries must be made on blanks furnished by club at the door of the Parish House on Friday, May 1st, from 9-11 a. m.

The judges are as follows: Mrs. C. C. Carr and Mrs. John IZARD of Asheville. The judges for the specimen classes will be Mrs. Henry Criegler of Greenville, S. C., and Mrs. L. J. Blake of Spartanburg, South Carolina.

Ladies' Tournament

In the ladies tournament, Mrs. Sam Abernethy defeated Mrs. Carter Brown 6-1, 6-1.

Mrs. John Washburn defeated Mrs. Walter Hill 6-2, 6-1.

Mrs. Dudley Smith defeated Miss Betty Doubleday after playing one set 6-4, favor of Mrs. Smith and when the second set was 2 all.

Mrs. M. B. Flynn defeated Mrs. Frederick Bowes after playing one set 6-2 favor of Mrs. Bowes and with the second set standing 1-3, favor of Mrs. Bowes. The semi-finals, Mrs. Washburn vs. Miss Doubleday and Mrs. Bowes vs. Mrs. Abernethy will be played Friday and the finals Saturday.

Dr. Lindsey Composer Of Successful Opera

Dr. Edwin S. Lindsey, former Tryon boy and son-in-law of Mrs. Henry Bray of Tryon, who is now head of the English Department of the University of Chattanooga presented last week a successful opera, the news of which will interest his Tryon friends who will be proud of his splendid achievement.

The Chattanooga Times says:

"Dr. Lindsey, head of the English department in University of Chattanooga, who composed words and music of the opera, "Elizabeth and Leicester," and directed the production presented last night, received an ovation from a capacity audience in the John A. Patten Memorial chapel."

A more complete account of this news is published in this week's Polk County News.

Your Taxes High ?

If you think your taxes are high, they will be 25 per cent higher this year if you fail to list them by tonight, according to the law. Today is the last day allotted in which to list your taxes.

HEADLINES

Will set hearing for N. C. vets' hospital. Survey being made of need for Eastern unit of state.

Italian drive is on last lap. Motorized column turns due west on open road to Ethiopian capital.