Depot Agent Wins Prize for Neatness

Southern Railway Agent T. G. Miller has just received a first prize of five dollars for having the cleanest and most attractive depot on the Asheville division under Trainmaster J. C. Morris. The railroad is endeavoring to make its property attractive to the public. In this connection it is interesting to note that the local office under Mr. Miller doubled its freight and passenger business over last year. The railroad has improved its service considerably. A special department now supplies customers with information about hotels and points of interest; passenger cars have been improved; free delivery of express and freight has been added at the local office giving Tryon the very best service of this kind.

Stevens and Conrad Tie In Golf Match

C. H. Conrad and Stanford Stevens tied for first place in the flag tournament at the Tryon Country club play off Monday. The prize, a box of golf balls was divided between them.

The ladies flag tournament will be played Wednesday, and all ladies of the community who are interested in the tournament are urged to enter at once.
