Donald Wing Wins In Dancing Contest

Of interest to Tryon friends is the news that Donald Wing was the winner of the Herald & Examiner Dancing contest held at the Chicago Stadium on May 9th. He was awarded the championship in the finals for his eccentric solo dancing. The prize is $100 in cash, a diamond medal, and a week's engagement at one of the largest Chicago theatres. Donald graduated from Tryon High with the class of 1931. He says that he will fill the theatre engagement if he can be excused from the "factory" (International Harvester Co.) that long.
