

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The Smallest Daily Newspaper In The World)

Vol. 9, Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, JUNE 3, 1936

Auto Is Burned; Drunken Occupants In Columbus Jail

The Indians called it firewater. Anyway, a roadster automobile from Tennessee was burned Sunday in one of the dangerous curves this side of the Saluda highway below Turner's Picnic grounds. The car hit the iron fence, it is said, and caught fire. Two of the occupants were arrested for drunkenness and placed in Polk county jail at Columbus where they have been since Sunday, but were to be released today upon the receipt of money from Tennessee. A third occupant caught a bus before he could be arrested.

Bonus Expected Soon

Postmaster W. H. Stearns stated today that the Postal officials were expecting the Bonus checks for the Veterans to arrive in Tryon about June 18. No money will be paid at the Tryon postoffice. Veterans living on rural routes will receive their checks in their mail boxes along with the regular mail, but the postmaster will notify them ahead of time just what day to be at their boxes to get the checks.

Leave for Europe

Miss Hope Washburn leaves on Monday by motor for Rye, N. Y., where she will visit friends before sailing for Europe on the Manhattan. Miss Washburn will take her automobile with her and motor in England, France and the Scandinavian countries. Miss Ferdinande Poppe will accompany her as far as New York.

Rotary Club Changes Its Meeting Place

The Tryon Rotary club which has been meeting at Oak Hall hotel has changed its meeting place for the summer to Lake Lanier Inn which is also owned by Oak Hall and operated by Z. M. Netherton.

New Train Schedule

The Southern Railway put on an improved train schedule Sunday morning. The morning train that formerly arrived in Tryon at 11:17 going to Asheville has been changed to 9:22 a. m., nearly two hours earlier. All the other trains are the same. The next train going up arrives at 4:34. The ones coming down from Asheville arrive at 12:37 and 5:03 p. m., as formerly.

Here From Mexico

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Sloss arrived Tuesday to occupy their home in Gillette Woods. Mr. and Mrs. Sloss, who own a large coffee business in Mexico, have been dividing their time with Tryon and Jalapa, Mexico. But Mr. Sloss states that business conditions had become so unsafe there, due to the attitude of Mexican officials that he was forced to leave the country. He and Mrs. Sloss will now make their permanent home in Tryon.