McFarland-Hague

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kenneth McFarland announce the marriage of their daughter, Mary Frances, to Mr. Woodrow Lynch Hague. The wedding ceremony was performed this morning at 11 o'clock in the Erskine Memorial Congregational church with the bride's pastor, Dr. C. Arthur Lincoln, officiating, in the presence of immediate members of both families.

The bride, who has been teaching the past two years in the Tryon-Saluda district school at Lynn, is a graduate of Tryon high school and of Queens-Chicora college. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hague of Columbus and was educated at Stearns high school, Weaver, and Western Carolina Teachers college and Robinson's Business college. He is a teacher in the Sunny View school of Polk county. Following a short wedding trip through the Smokies and in Virginia, the young couple will make their home in Columbus.

Boy Dies

Hollis Joe Newman, 14, died early this morning at St. Luke's Hospital following three week's severe illness. Funeral services will be held Saturday at Morgan's Chapel. The lad was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Newman.

Colored Woman Dies

Pinola Simms, wife of Charlie Simms and sister of Clarence Jackson, the market man at the Ballenger Co., died this morning. Funeral services Sunday at St. Luke C. M. E. Church.
