Carrier Pigeons are Released Here For Rochester, N. Y.

Ely Buel of Tryon and Rochester, N. Y., who is now spending the summer at Rochester, sent Dr. J. E. Derby 16 carrier pigeons this week and Dr. Derby released them Friday morning. The pigeons that make the trip back home successfully will be sent to Daytona Beach next time. Mr. Buel is a prominent pigeon fancier and enters a number of pigeons in races. Some of his best birds fly 100 miles an hour. So far as this paper knows this is the first time Tryon and Rochester have been linked by air.

Vote Till Sunset

The polls in the Democratic primary today will be open all day until sunset. All public spirited Democrats should vote for the candidate of their choice. The returns of the primary will be given out tonight over the radio station. No actual figures can be given until sunset when the counting begins all over the state. Considerable interest has been shown in the candidacy for governor with Clyde Hoey, R. H. McDonald, Sandy Graham and John R. McRae in the race.

REVENUE BILL PASSED

U. S. Senate Friday passed the revenue bill and sent it to a conference of the House, then adjourned for a week's recess.
