

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The Smallest Daily Newspaper In The World)

Vol. 9, Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., TUESDAY, JUNE 9, 1936

Scout Leaders Will Meet This Week-end

More than 100 leaders representing Boy Scout troops and committees of the Piedmont Council, Boy Scouts of America will join together in a camp conference at the Piedmont Boy Scout Camp at Lake Lanier on June 13th and 14, the event being a part of the yearly training program of the organization.

The conference will open with supper at six o'clock on Saturday, June 13th and will conclude with noon dinner on Sunday, June 14. Camp-fire programs and training and recreational events will be carried out. On Sunday morning, Judge Bismarck Capps, president of the Piedmont Boy Scout Council will conduct a short devotional service.

Scout leaders in the counties of Gaston, Cleveland, Lincoln, Rutherford, Polk, Iredell, Alexander, Caldwell, Catawba, Burke and McDowell have been invited and those who plan to attend have been asked to make reservations with the Scout Executive of the Piedmont Council.

Vacation Bible School Starts Here Monday

The Community Bible School conducted the past two seasons at the Erskine Memorial church, will start again on Monday morning with a larger staff than ever. Teachers will include two field workers, Dr. Lincoln, Miss Elizabeth Avant, and Miss Ruth Lincoln. All children invited.

Dies From Wounds Received in a Saw Mill Accident Sat.

James Taylor Whitesides, 22, son of Mr. Taylor Whitesides of Mill Spring died this morning at 7:30 at St. Luke's hospital after several days suffering as the result of injuries received on Saturday morning when he was hit on head with piece of wood flying from the saw, it is said.

Funeral arrangements had not been completed this morning, but it is planned to have the services at White Oak church in Mill Spring with the pastor, Rev. C. B. Trammel, officiating.

The deceased leaves his wife, one child and many other relatives.

90 Gallons Whiskey Confiscated in Tryon

State and Federal officers were out early this morning to capture three men, destroy three stills, and to confiscate two automobiles and about 90 gallons of corn liquor. The stills were destroyed in the neighborhood of Hogback mountain. One of the cars contained 85 gallons of liquor and the other 5 gallons, it is reported. One car tried to out run the law and took the side road back of Oak Hall, running from Melrose Ave. to Landrum Road, but it ran in a ditch. The men were taken to Greenville and the whiskey to Asheville for the Federal court's disposal.