Kiwanis At School

The Tryon Kiwanis club will meet on Tuesday at 1 p. m., at the Tryon school Home Economics room where Miss Carrie Williams, the director, will provide the kind of meal Tryon school children are being taught to cook. Kerneth A. Bowen, vice-president of the Tryon Kiwanis club will have charge of the program.

Music typifying the spirit of Hungary, Russia, Spain and Germany is included in the International program to be heard over WWNC tonight from 7:30 to 8 o'clock. The half hour concert to be given by the Boston Symphony will include compositions by Berlioz, Weber, Tschaiikowsky and Chabier.

LOTS FOR SALE—At a bargain in Tryon and Columbus. Electricity and water available. George A. Cathey, phone 138—Adv. 3teod.

There's No Place Like HOME

Be it ever so humble. This is no argument however, against providing your home with the finer things in life if your income permits.

To be more definite. If you are not enjoying the wonders of a modern radio set, you should investigate the advisability and possibility of having one in your home.

Other things to consider: Electric Washing Machine, Electric refrigerator, Vacuum Cleaner.

All these available at our store with a small cash payment, and balance easy monthly payments.
