

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The Smallest Daily Newspaper In The World)

Vol. 9, Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., TUESDAY, JUNE 30, 1936

Tryon to Celebrate The 4th by Closing

All Tryon merchants will close their places of business on Saturday, July 4th, in observance of the National Holiday. It is also voting day for the second primary for Governor of North Carolina and for State Senator in Polk county on the Democratic ticket and for Coroner in the county on the Republican ticket. So there will be a lot of people out Saturday in addition to the picnickers. Just what community celebration, if any, will be announced in Wednesday's Bulletin. The following stores have signed to close:

Farmers Federation, A&P Tea Co., Dixie Store, McNeely's Cash Store, Arledge Hardware, Tryon Barber Shop, Blue Ridge Weavers, Peeler's Jewelry, Tryon Motor Co., Martin's Garage, Tryon Shoe Hospital, Thompson's Barber Shop, The Ballenger Co., Jackson's, Exclusive Ladies' Shoppe, Ballew's Grocery, Shields Plumbing Co., Betsy Bird Shop, Wood's Press, Post Office, The Tryon Daily Bulletin, The Polk County News.

Library to Observe Fourth

The Lanier Library will not be open on Saturday, July 4th. Books due on that date will be extended to July 7th. Miss Mary Carpenter, the librarian, state today.

Raleigh, June 29.—State WPA officials said today World War veterans needing employment will be given relief jobs irrespective of whether they have received their "bonus."

London Letter, No. 11

5, Montagu Square, W. L.
June 20th.

Dear Mr Vining,

As this is Ascot Week, very little is happening in London in the social world, thank heaven. After twelve in the morning when the race-goers leave, there descends a deep peace upon the city. At last one is able to drive along the streets instead of merely wiggling along them in a haze of fumes, and so, of course, one arrives at one's luncheon appointments far too early!

This year there has been no royal procession along the course, but otherwise I gather from the newspapers it has been, as usual, an altogether glorious and dazzling meeting. As a passionate hater of Ascot and race meetings in general I can hardly believe this! Anyhow, the sun shone.

There is an exhibition now taking place of Surrealist Art, which has caused untold merriment and rage in London. Old Colonels are writing to the Times about it, shocked to their gallant roses. One of the pictures is of an old satin slipper, a fragment of fungus, and a red ring; another of a fur tea set; and another is just a solid white circle, entitled Women. Somebody smuggled in a picture last week, and placed it on the wall when nobody was looking. It had an instantaneous success! It "meant" things to lots of people! It depicted a deformed woman with one-half blue half brown eye, and one eye made up of coloured beads. She had a beard

—Continued on Page Two—