

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The Smallest Daily Newspaper In The World)

Vol. 9, Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., FRIDAY, JULY 3, 1936

WHY I'M STAYING OPEN

FIRST—I love and respect my country and flag; I also love and respect my customers well enough to serve them when they need service.

SECOND—The mill people get paid at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon, but who wants to work hard all day, come to town in a hurry and get part of what they want and forget the rest of it.

THIRD—The man who put an ad in the Bulletin, said the leading business houses were closing for the Fourth of July. I realize that I am not a leading merchant at this time, but I am hoping and working hard to be one some day.

FOURTH—I remember well when Christmas came a few years ago on Saturday. The big business men of Tryon did not close until Monday. If we can't celebrate Christ's birthday until Monday why celebrate the Fourth of July Saturday?

FIFTH—I believe that all good American customers will agree with me. Furthermore, I am putting my name at the bottom so people will not have to wonder who put this in The Bulletin.

John Cowan.
