

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The Smallest Daily Newspaper In The World)

Vol. 9, Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, JULY 9, 1936

The Bulletin Editor Attending Press Association Meet

Mr. and Mrs. Seth M. Vining and daughter, Elizabeth Anne, left this morning for Waynesville to attend the North Carolina State Press Association which is holding a three day session. This afternoon the members of the press will visit the large paper mill at Canton, tonight at Hotel Gordon in Waynesville they will hear Arnold B. Cammerer, director of the National Park Service. Friday they will visit the Indian Reservation and the Smoky Mountain National Park. On Saturday at the business session an item of local interest will be a memorial paper read by Edith C. M. Douglass of Brevard in memory of S. T. Wood, formerly editor of The Polk County News. A memorial from the Western North Carolina Press Association committee is being published in today's Bulletin.

The editor requests all friends to please phone in as many items to The Bulletin as you can this week-end while he is away.

This is a community paper and you have made it what it is.

At Rotary Friday

Rev. C. P. Burnet will be the main speaker at the Rotary club Friday, at Lake Lanier Tea Room. The new president, F. P. Bacon, will preside.

THE BOYS CLUB

Quoting Dr. George Taylor "The Ayes of the Tryon Boys club is 7 to 70. Jimmie Cobb, Group 1.

We had 43 boys in the Boys club today. This is the most we've had yet. Jimmy Jackson, Group 2.

What the members of the Tryon Boys club are doing: Making aeroplanes — Thurston Arledge, Instructor, Bruce Byers, Bill Swann, Bob Nance, Jimmie Cobb, Spurgeon Arledge and Richard McClure. Weaving — Holl and Brady, Instructor, Bill Mebane, Phil Mebane, Dickey Stone, Marion Edwards, Marvin Edwards and Julius Earle Brock. Carving— Edward Manville, Instructor, Pickens Durham, Locke McGeachy, Marion Green, R. L. Williams, Harold Taylor, Billy Derby, Henry McGeachy, Burrell Byers, and Seth Vining. Making Belts—David Cromer, Instructor, Edward Samples, Robert Hill, Jimmy Jackson, E. G. Baller, Harrison Bridgeman, Roy Hall, Bob Thayer, Marley Canady, Dickey Arthur, Billy Dobbyn, Carroll Ford, Jack Melton, Ernest Melton, Billy Alewine, and John Ralph Ford, Richard McClure, Group 5.

The program of Tryon Boys club is as follows: First comes the regular morning meeting. Next is work period. Next is group discussion. Then we have games and then depart home. The officers in the club are group leaders—David Cromer, Henry McGeachy, Dick Taylor, Bill Swann, Seth Vining. Assistant Group Leaders, Jimmy Cobb, John Moore, Burrell Byers, Bob Nance and Marion

—Continued on Back Page—