Town of Tryon Buys Building

The Town Commissioners at their last meeting on July 10th authorized the purchase of the two story building adjoining Hotel Tryon. The property was purchased from the Peoples Building & Loan Association. The Town of Tryon offices will be moved about August 1 from their present location in the Postal Telegraph office to their new quarters. The Tryon Fire Department will also be moved to the new quarters.

The Boys Club

The different groups in the Boys club have selected their group colors. Group 1 has purple; Group 2, blue; Group 3, green; Group 4, white; Group 5, red.—Holland Brady for Group 3.

The club has different groups clean up rooms after work.. Group 4 will clean up today. The attendance at the club today was 39; the enrollment is 43. The smallest boy in the club, William Edward Hill, celebrated his tenth birthday and brought Dr. Taylor a cake. He says, "I'll bring some if my mama will let me." — Bill Swann for Group 4.

We had two more members today, Bob Grugel of Amherst, O.; and Richard Grugel of Cleveland, O. They are guests of Billy Derby and are coming for two days. Frank and Eugene Turner will umpire the baseball game Thursday at Harmon Field. Each group
