THE BOYS CLUB

The Tryon Boys club called off the field day because of rain. They will have it Friday. The different groups gave programs this morning and a prize of two points was given the winning groups. Group 1 and 2 won in behaviour today. Bill Swann for Group 4.

Group 5 won the attendance today. Ernest Waters is a new member of the club. The different groups have the following points: Group One, 8 points; Group Two, 13 points; Group Three, 15 points; Group Four, 11 points; Group Five, 21 points.—Richard McClure for Group 5.

William Edward Hill, age seven, the smallest boy of the Tryon Boys club wishes to correct a mistake which appeared in the Boys club news in yesterday's Bulletin. William Edward says, he is only seven years old and not ten years old, as was stated in yesterday's Bulletin, but his brother, Robert Lee Hill, was ten years old yesterday. William Edward carried Dr. Taylor a nice, large piece of Robert Lee's birthday cake which was greatly enjoyed by all the members of the club present. William Edward is learning to weave. Robert Lee finished his belt today which he has been making. Both boys are very much interested in the club work.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kerhulas and family went to Union, S. C., today to attend the wedding of Mr. Kerhulas' niece.

Guests at Circle Inn: Miss Margaret Schuckard, New York City; Miss Hilda Diedel East Orange, N. J.; Max Wille, New York City.
