

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The Smallest Daily Newspaper In The World)

Vol. 9, Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., SATURDAY, JULY 25, 1936

FILLERS

Reading a statement of Fred Blanton's M&J Finance Corporation for June 30th we note that it has assets of over a million dollars—a gain over last year of $129,353.23. This corporation began at Columbus in 1928 and has had a remarkable growth. C. P. Rogers of Tryon is chairman of the board of directors and F. P. Bacon of Tryon is a member of the board.

Meeting Miss Alice Martin on the street yesterday we learned that Miss Mary Drew reports hot weather in Canada where she went on a cruise for her vacation. Temperature there went over 100 degrees and there were no air-conditioned trains. So she will go to Detroit to get an air-conditioned train home.

Another happy meeting was the greeting of Mr. John Orr on Trade street Wednesday. Mr. Orr is running John D. Rockefeller a close race for age and all indications point to his hundredth birthday celebration in Tryon. For the best way to live these two men are good examples. Mr. Orr has lived a life of usefulness all his life and it is reflected in his face and in his spirit. Mr. Rockefeller, after living a cold-blooded business life earlier in his career, changed over to Mr. Orr's way of living and is making his money serve humanity. When one gets lost in the woods and comes across a path he follows it as a known way out. So in life when a young man gets

—Continued on Page Two—

Baseball Today

Tryon and Beacon play baseball this afternoon at Harmon Field at 3:30 o'clock.

HEADLINES

W. L. Clevenger, North Carolina college professor is being held in Asheville jail for investigation in connection with the murder of his 18-year-old niece, Helen Clevenger, of New York University, who was travelling with him at the time of her death at the Battery Park hotel in Asheville on July 16. A negro bell boy and a white night watchman are also being held. Mark Wollner, well-known violinist, first suspected has been released.

Spanish rebels were repulsed Friday in their war against the government at Madrid. San Sebastian again in hands of government troops.

Father Coughlin apologizes calling President Roosevelt a liar, but does not apologize for calling candidate Roosevelt a liar, and thinks he should be replaced.

The North Carolina American Legion is holding its annual convention today in Asheville.

American Federation of Labor headquarters report that signs indicate an upward trend in business this fall. Business leaders report the same thing.