Tryonites Escape From Spanish Rebels

Mrs. Margaret Culklin Banning, noted author of Tryon, who is touring Europe with her son and daughter, was in San Sebastian, Spain last week ago attending church service when communistic soldiers entered the church. The Bannings hid behind the church pews until the soldiers left the building and then rushed for the French border. They were stopped by different soldiers a number of times while enroute and searched to see if they were carrying guns.

Kiwanians Plan Annual Meeting At Lake Resort

Officers and members of the Greer, Tryon, Rutherfordton and Forest City Kiwanis clubs have been invited to attend the annual Spartanburg Kiwanis picnic on Thursday evening at Rainbow Lake.

An informal program of recreation and entertainment has been planned by the inter-club relations and the agricultural committees of the local club. Between 40 and 50 visitors are expected and the total attendance is expected to be 200 or more.

The regular luncheon meeting at the Cleveland hotel will not be held this week.
