

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The Smallest Daily Newspaper In The World)

Vol. 9, Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C. WEDNESDAY, JULY, 29, 1936

Ben Boone Passes

Ben Boone, 61, died this morning at St. Luke's hospital at 3:15 after an illness of several days. He was brought to the hospital on Tuesday for an appendix operation.

Funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon at 4:30 at the First Baptist church of Landrum with Dr. E. E. Bomar, Rev. C. B. Prince and Dr. J. S. Lyons officiating. The pallbearers will be J. G. Landrum, W. M. Lambricht, A. B. Turner, Dr. R. H. Wilds, B. F. Thompson, John F. Cantrell.

Mr. Boone was a native of Mill Spring, Polk county, and was a member of one of this section's most prominent families and a descendant of Daniel Boone, the pioneer. He moved to St. Petersburg many years ago and built up large real estate holdings and was prominent in the business affairs of that city. For the past few years he had been spending some time with his sister, the late Mrs. T. F. Thorne, at Landrum, S. C., who died a few months ago. His closest relative is one sister, Mrs. Tate, of Portland, Oregon, mother of Henry Shankle of Tryon. He was never married.

Methodist Picnic

All the classes of the Tryon Methodist Sunday school will hold a picnic at Hermon Field on Thursday afternoon at 5 o'clock.

Andrews-Christopher

A wedding of interest to friends in the two Carolinas was solemnized Tuesday afternoon, July 28th, at 4:30 at the home of the bride's parents when Miss Mary Jane Andrews became the bride of Mr. Perry Earle Christopher.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. L. R. Akers in the living room before an improvised altar of mountain laurel, Queen Anne's Lace and lighted tapers in the presence of the two immediate families. The wedding music was rendered by little Miss Evelyn Brown, cousin of the bride. The bridal couple entered together unattended.

Mrs. Christopher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Andrews, of Saluda, and Bryson City, N. C., is a graduate of Greensboro college and has taught in the county schools, being a member of Tryon faculty for the past two years.

Mr. Christopher, son of Dr. and Mrs. R. G. Christopher, Landrum, S. C., received his education at Furman University and is employed at Shawrock Damask Mill in Landrum.

After a short wedding trip through the mountains the young couple will be at home in Landrum.

Reunion Postponed

The annual Jackson Family Reunion held every summer in Polk county has been postponed until further notice.