Our German Letter

Tryon Daily Bulletin:

You may feel inclined to fire your European correspondent for not giving you the low down on European international relations. But please be lenient because in time he may be able to read the German newspapers. So far his mind has with some success been centered upon deciphering the perplexities of German menus. He can now order baked fish and know for a certainty that a sad eyed boiled fish will not stare at him from its platter. At present Germany is atmospherically very wet and cold. Whether or no its atmospheric condition reflects its government's attitude toward the downpour of words deluging the surrounding nations your correspondent is not prepared to say until his clothes are dry and he becomes warm beneath a German feather tick.

Yours,
W. B. Weigel.

At Kiwanis

Dr. B. B. Bishop will have the Tryon Kiwanis club program on Tuesday noon at 1 o'clock at the Hotel Tryon.

B. C. Shelton and H.M. Layman, newspaper executives of the Decatur, Ala. Daily, spent the week-end here with their families who are spending the summer in Tryon. Mr. Shelton was high in his praise of Tryon as a charming place in which to live. Mr. Layman is the son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Owen S. Bird.
